We are pleased to invite you to the third edition of the AHCI's annual event Masters of Horology. These event will bring together over 20 independent watch and clock makers, completely autonomous in their artistic approach, who will showcase more than 20 exceptional timepieces, each of which is a genuine horological work of art, reflects the creativity, inventiveness, and passion of these master watchmakers.

Meet our passionate masters in person, uncover the secrets behind the design of their unique pieces, and immerse yourself in a world where each watch tells a story.

We invite you to join us for a week where creativity reaches its peak, where timepieces are more than mere instruments but true masterpieces.

Do not miss this exceptional opportunity to discover the elite of independent creators and explore the captivating world of watches that transcend time.
